Regional Sales Meeting

EMEA March 2022 (2/2)

Caroline May from CEVA Logistics and Richard Peck from Clover Biopharmaceuticals were invited as guest speakers to share their view on the temperature-controlled logistics market. Both guest speakers emphasized that va-Q-tec has a very strong brand value in the industry, both because of our excellent technical solutions and because of our box rental model, which is perceived as a very competitive and service oriented business model.
